Consolidated 5's in Demand on Local Exchange—Bankers Elect New Officers.

The trading on the local stock exchange today was light and price ed little change. Potomac Elec tric Consolidated 5's were in demand and brought a higher price than for time, when $4.000 of the bonds were sold at 101%. The only other bond rading was in Wasrington Gas, $500 of which sold at 108 and $1,000 at a quar-

some Federal National Bank stock was for sale, but it was all taken at 125-twenty-two shares. Washington Railway common sold at 92 for forty-five shares. Twenty shares of Mergenthaler sold at 26%, tnd one at 217. Seven shares of Gas sold at 84%, and five at 84%. This comprised the day's business.

Assistant Secretary of the Treasury John Skelton Williams is still out of the city today.

F. B. Devereux, of the National Savings and Trust Company, was elected president of the Washington Chapter, American Institute of Banking, at the annual election last night. Mr. Devereux was unopposed for the place. He succeeds C. C. Doing, ir., of the Washington Loan and Trust Company. Other officers were elected as follows: W. A. Dexter, vice president; H. W. Ireland, secretary; C. B. Grant, treasurer; Lawrence H. Killman, assistant secretary, and R. C. Drum Hunt, chief consul. The board of governors for the ensuing year will be Arthur Herbert, jr., Charles H. Doing, jr., D. H. Manning, C. D. Boyer and A. S. Carter. The installation of officers will be held on Thursday night, May Z. W. W. Spald was appointed chairman of a committee, which will arrange for the entertainment of delegates to the national convention in Richmond in September.

The delegates from other cities will spend a day in Washington en route to the convention. The committee will be completed by the choice of one member from each bank in the city. F. B. Devereux, of the National Sav

The Safest Investments

Are those that do not fluctuate during dis-turbed conditions of the money or stock mar-kets. First deed of trust a tes (first mort-gages), well secured on real estate in the District of Columbia, constitute "gill-edge" investments. They do not desend upon the financial responsibility of individuals or cor-porations for their stability, and are exemp-from taxation as personal property. We can supply such investments in amounts from 1860 upward. Send for booklet, "Concerning Loans and Investments."
